Michel foucault quotes on knowledge

"The practice of S/M is the creation of pleasure.... And that's why S/M is really a subculture. It's a process of invention. S/M is the use of a strategic relationship as a source of pleasure." -- Michel Foucault #Practice #Use #Creation "One thing in any case is certain: man is neither the oldest nor the most constant problem that has been posed for human knowledge." -- Michel Foucault #Men #Madness #Problem "I don't feel that it is necessary to know exactly what I am. The main interest in life and work is to become someone else that you were not in the beginning." -- Michel Foucault #Interest #Feels "People know what they do; frequently they know why they do what they do; but what they don't know is what what they do does." -- Michel Foucault #Life #Philosophy #People "Where there is power, there is resistance." -- Michel Foucault #Resistance #Pizza "Do not ask who I am and do not ask me to remain the same. More than one person, doubtless like me, writes in order to have no face." -- Michel Foucault #Writing #Order #Who I Am "Do not ask who I am and do not ask me to remain the same." -- Michel Foucault #Who I Am #Ask Me "There is no power relation without the correlative constitution of a field of knowledge, nor any knowledge that does not presuppose and constitute at the same time power relations" -- Michel Foucault #Fields #Doe #Constitution "Death left its old tragic heaven and became the lyrical core of man: his invisible truth, his visible secret." -- Michel Foucault #Men #Heaven #Secret "It is meaningless to speak in the name of - or against - Reason, Truth, or Knowledge." -> Michel Foucault #Names #Speak #Reason "Is it surprising that prisons resemble factories, schools, barracks, hospitals, which all resemble prisons?" -- Michel Foucault #School #Prison #Factories "Knowledge is not for knowing; knowledge is for cutting." -- Michel Foucault #Cutting #Knowing "The imaginary is not formed in opposition to reality as its denial or compensation; it grows among signs, from book to book, in the interstices of repetitions and commentaries: it is born and takes shape in the interval between books. It is the phenomena of the library." -- Michel Foucault #Book #Reality #Imagination "Are the prisons overpopulated, or is the population over-imprisoned ?" -- Michel Foucault #Population #Prison "As the archaeology of our thought easily shows, man is an invention of recent date. And one perhaps nearing its end." -- Michel Foucault #Men #Invention #Ends "The lyricism of marginality may find inspiration in the image of the outlaw, the great social nomad, who prowls on the confines of a docile, frightened order." -- Michel Foucault #Inspiration #Order #May "A critique is not a matter of saying that things are not right as they are. It is a matter of pointing out on what kinds of assumptions, what kinds of familiar, unchallenged, unconsidered modes of thought the practices that we accept rest." -- Michel Foucault #Practice #Matter #Kind "Truth is to be understood as a system of ordered procedures for the production, regulation, distribution, circulation and operation of statements. 'Truth' is linked in a circular relation with systems of power which produce and sustain it, and to effects of power which it induces and which extend it. A 'regime' of truth." -- Michel Foucault #Knowledge And Power #Regulation #Truth Is "I'm no prophet. My job is making windows where there were once walls." -- Michel Foucault #Jobs #Wall #Window "Withdraw allegiance from the old categories of the Negative (law, limit, castration, lack, lacuna), which the Western thought has so long held sacred as a form of power and an access to reality. Prefer what is positive and multiple, difference over uniformity, flows over unities, mobile arrangements over systems. Believe that what is productive is not sedentary but nomadic." -- Michel Foucault #Believe #Reality #Law "Do not think that one has to be sad in order to be militant, even though the thing one is fighting is abominable." -- Michel Foucault #Fighting #Thinking #Order "...if you are not like everybody else, then you are abnormal. If you are abnormal, then you are sick. These three categories, not being like everybody else, not being normal and being sick are in fact very different but have been reduced to the same thing" -- Michel Foucault #Sick #Abnormal #Facts "Sexuality is a part of our behavior. It's part of our world's freedom. Sexuality is something that we ourselves create. It is our own creation, and much more than the discovery of a secret side of our desire. We have to understand that with our desires go new forms of relationships, new forms of love, new forms of creation. Sex is not a fatality; it's a possibility for creative life. It's not enough to affirm that we are gay but we must also create a gay life." -- Michel Foucault #Sex #Gay #Our World "During the years 1945-1965 (I am referring to Europe), there was a certain way of thinking correctly, a certain style of political discourse, a certain ethics of the intellectual. One had to be on familiar terms with Marx, not let one's dreams stray too far from Freud.... These were the requirements that made the strange occupation of writing and speaking a measure of truth about oneself and one's time acceptable." -- Michel Foucault #Dream #Writing #Thinking "I wasn't always smart. I was actually very stupid in school [T]here was a boy who was very attractive who was even stupider than I was. And in order to ingratiate myself with this boy who was very beautiful, I began to do his homework for him àc" and that's how I became smart, I had to do all this work to just keep ahead of him a little bit, in order to help him. In a sense, all the rest of my life I've been trying to do intellectual things that would attract beautiful boys." -- Michel Foucault #Beautiful #Smart #Stupid "What strikes me is the fact that in our society, art has become something which is only related to objects, and not to individuals, or to life." -- Michel Foucault #Art #Our Society #Facts "What strikes me is the fact that in our society, art has become something which is related only to objects and not to individuals, or to life. That art is something which is specialized or which is done by experts who are artists. But couldn't everyone's life become a work of art? Why should the lamp or the house be an art object, but not our life?" -- Michel Foucault #Art #House #Experts "The soul is the prison of the body." -- Michel Foucault #Soul #Body #Prison "[L]et us say that we are obliged to produce the truth by the power that demands truth and needs it in order to function: we are forced to tell the truth, we are constrained, we are condemned to admit the truth or to discover it." -- Michel Foucault #Order #Demand #Needs "What desire can be contrary to nature since it was given to man by nature itself?" -- Michel Foucault #Men #Desire #Given 500 WALLPAPERS 3.739 POINTS 54 WALLPAPERS 338.679 POINTS 500 WALLPAPERS 273.723 POINTS 100 WALLPAPERS 229.138 POINTS QUOTE TEXT Michel Foucault was an eminent French philosopher, historian, literary critic, and social theorist. His writings, thoughts and theories primarily highlight the relationship between knowledge and power. They also throw light on how societal institutions use power and knowledge as a form of social control. He was often labelled as postmodernist and post-structuralist, but he condemned these labels. His works, writings, and thoughts have strongly influenced academics, including those working in literary theory, sociology, critical theory and cultural studies. His theories have also been termed as compelling by activist groups. We have created a corpus of thought-provoking, motivating and inspiring quotes by Michel Foucault. Let us browse through the quotes and thoughts by Michel Foucault on trap, oppression, nature, chance, life, power, technology, love, society, freedom, justice, expression and more. July 27, 2021July 27, 2021 "Truth" is to be understood as a system of ordered procedures for the production, regulation, distribution, circulation and operation of statements. 'Truth' is linked in a circular relation with systems of power which produce and sustain it, and to effects of power which it induces and which extend it. A 'regime' of truth."Michel Foucault Schools serve the same social functions as prisons and mental institutions - to define, classify, control, and regulate people. People know what they do; frequently they know why they do what they do; but what they don't know is what what they do does. There are forms of oppression and domination which become invisible - the new normal. Where there is power, there is resistance. "Knowledge doesn't really form part of human nature. Conflict, combat, the outcome of the combat, and, consequently, risk and chance are what gives rise to knowledge. Knowledge is not instinctive; it is counter instinctive, just as it is not natural but counter natural."Michel Foucault I don't feel that it is necessary to know exactly what I am. The main interest in life and work is to become someone else that you were not in the beginning. Power is tolerable only on condition that it mask a substantial part of itself. Its success is proportional to its ability to hide its own mechanisms. From the idea that the self is not given to us, I think there is only one practical consequence: we have to create ourselves as a work of art.Are the prisons overpopulated, or is the population over-imprisoned?"Domination is not that solid and global kind of domination that one person exercises over others, or one group over another, but the manifold forms of domination that can be exercised within society."Michel FoucaultSearch for what is good and strong and beautiful in your society and elaborate from there. Push outward.Our society is not one of spectacle but of surveillance.The 'Enlightenment', which discovered the liberties, also invented the disciplines."The real political task in a society such as ours is to criticize the workings of institutions that appear to be both neutral and independent, to criticize and attack them in such a manner that the political violence that has always exercised itself obscurely through them will be unmasked, so that one can fight against them."Michel FoucaultWe are freer than we think.Freedom of conscience entails more dangers than authority and despotism.Total surveillance is increasingly the general condition of society as a whole."The history of thought, of knowledge, of philosophy, of literature seems to be seeking, and discovering, more and more discontinuities, whereas history itself appears to be abandoning the irruption of events in favor of stable structures."Michel FoucaultI am hopelessly in love with a memory. An echo from another time, another place.Maybe the target nowadays is not to discover what we are but to refuse what we are.Always create from what you already have. Then you will know what to do.What desire can be contrary to nature since it was given to man by nature itself?Do not think that one has to be sad in order to be militant, even though the thing one is fighting is abominable.Everything is bad, but that everything is dangerous, which is not exactly the same as bad.The judges of normality are present everywhere. We are in the society of the teacher-judge, the doctor-judge, the educator-judge, the social worker-judge,justice must always question itself, just as society can exist only by means of the work it does on itself and on its institutions.Prison is a recruitment center for the army of crime. That is what it achieves.But the guilty person is only one of the targets of punishment. For punishment is directed above all at others, at all the potentially guilty."The university and in a general way, all teaching systems, which appear simply to disseminate knowledge, are made to maintain a certain social class in power; and to exclude the instruments of power of another social class."Michel FoucaultPower is also exerted over the body, not so much as physical punishment, but as ideological orders.The fascism in us all that causes us to love power, to desire the very thing that dominates and exploits us.The individual, with his identity and characteristics, is the product of a relation of power exercised over bodies, multiplicities, movements, desires, forces.Power is tolerable only on the condition that it masks a substantial part of itself."Power is not an institution, and not a structure; neither is it a certain strength we are endowed with; it is the name that one attributes to a complex strategic situation in a particular society."Michel Foucault"Education may well be, as of right, the instrument whereby every individual, in a society like our own, can gain access to any kind of discourse. But we well know that in its distribution, in what it permits and in what it prevents, it follows the well-trodden battle-lines of social conflict. Every educational system is a political means of maintaining or of modifying the appropriation of discourse, with the knowledge and the powers it carries with it."Michel FoucaultKnowledge is not for knowing; knowledge is for cutting.All teaching systems, which appear simply to disseminate knowledge, are made to maintain a certain social class in power."There is no power relation without the correlative constitution of a field of knowledge, nor any knowledge that does not presuppose and constitute at the same time power relations."Michel FoucaultThe perfect disciplinary apparatus would make it possible for a single haze to see everything constantly.The language of psychiatry, which is a monologue by reason... could only have come into existence in such a silence.To change something in the minds of people - that's the role of an intellectual.One must confront what one is thinking and saying with what one is doing, what one is.What strikes me is the fact that in our society, art has become something which is only related to objects, and not to individuals, or to life.Madness is the absolute break with the work of art; it forms the constitutive moment of abolition, which dissolves in time the truth of the work of art.That art is something which is specialized. But couldn't everyone's life become a work of art?Why should the lamp or the house be an art object, but not our life?Truth is linked in a circular relation with systems of power which produce and sustain it.Truth is not by nature free - nor error servile - but that its production is thoroughly imbued with relations of power.Truth and falsity, will have revealed the face it turned away from us for so long and which is that of its violence.To sum up all these steps, each of which is very lengthy and complex, we will have put the game of truth back in the network of constraints and domination.The fear before the absolute limit of death becomes interiorized in a continual process of ionization.Death left its old tragic heaven and became the lyrical core of man: his invisible truth, his visible secret.I don't write a book so that it will be the final word; I write a book so that other books are possible, not necessarily written by me.Do not ask who I am and do not ask me to remain the same. More than one person, doubtless like me, writes in order to have no face.Discipline and Punish: The Birth of the PrisonAlso read;Jeremiah SayJuly 20, 2021October 15, 2021Jeremiah SaySeptember 28, 2021September 28, 2021Jeremiah SayMay 28, 2020May 3, 2021Jeremiah SayOctober 1, 2020March 2, 2021Jeremiah SayMay 6, 2021May 6, 2021Jeremiah SayJune 3, 2020July 31, 2020
